The Empty Tomb. The Resurrection appears; is received up into Heaven

ceeding great. 5 And entering into, away and told it unto the rest; neither the tomb, they saw a young man sit, clothed unto the eleven themselves as white robes; and they were amazed. 6 And he saith unto them, Be not amazed; ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, whom they believed he is not here; behold, the place where he was laid. 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee. 8 And they feared, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one, for they were afraid. 9 Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared unto Mary Magdalene, whom he had sent forth, and preached with her. 10 And she went and told them all things which she had done and said. 11 But they believed not, because they believed not in her, and said, She is deceived. 12 Then he appeared unto them at the right hand, and preached with them. 13 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. 14 And he said unto them, Behold, I send you forth, as I have commanded you. 15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. 16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be condemned. 17 And these signs shall accompany them that believe: in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. Amen.

Memories

1960-61

Presented By Class Of 1961

Broadway High School
Broadway, Virginia
Volume IX

Friends,

Here is your 1960-61 edition of

Memories.

We have used the School

Philosophy for our theme.

May this yearbook not only preserve happy school experiences, but may it also be instrumental in deepening appreciation of our opportunities, and serve to help the entire community to more fully understand our program.

The Staff

Mr. Hillyard

states the significance of . . .

School philosophy may be thought of as a body of principles or general conceptions underlying the operation and activity of your educational agency.

A statement of educational philosophy depends upon the judgment of no one person, but includes the opinion and judgment of the people of the community, pupils, and teachers as to what constitutes the educational needs of boys and girls during and following their high school years.

It is desirable that pupils, parents, and the entire community have a positive attitude toward their school. It is important that they feel the school is an integral part of community life. Secondary education is a community enterprise. Its purpose and curriculum are designed by the desires that parents have for the personal-social development of each youth.

We hope that our effort to interpret basic school philosophy in this edition of the yearbook will help you to understand and establish the objectives for your local high school program.

Society rightly turns to its schools to seek solutions to its problems; but these decisions cannot be made by educators alone, nor have they been made in this fashion. These decisions must be made by the people whom the schools serve.

Present priorities in public education need continuing study. Perhaps new priorities will be written for our high schools within the next decade, but they are likely to be written by the people whom they serve.

We welcome any opportunity to work with you in helping to extend and broaden the range as to what good schools are and what they can accomplish.

MR. J. FRANK HILLYARD

Juniors Lunch With President

On October 27, two Broadway High School Juniors, Bliss Robinson and Wayne Boyers had the unique privilege of lunching with President Eisenhower. Bliss succeeded in attracting the President's attention, and she asked him to pose for a picture, which he agreed to do.

The luncheon was held in the audi-

Gobblers Down Judges 25-6

The Broadway High School Gobblers romped over the Handley Judges with a 25-6 victory in the last game of the season, Saturday, October 22. The Reidsmen marched to the goal line twice on their first five carrier of the pigskins. The first few minutes of the opening quarter proved to be very successful when Lynn Harrison and Steve May plunged through the Judges to go all the way for two TD.

Farewell

Dear Student Body,

I hope that you appreciate the efforts that the annual staff have exhibited in trying to make this edition of MEMORIES the best ever published.

May the future have a rich reward for those who seek success in their undertakings.

Harley Showalter, Editor

Dear Friends,

We, the graduating class of 1961, will soon be leaving Broadway High School. All through our years of education, we have strived to reach this goal. We are indebted to our principal who has guided and directed us and our school through the years. We are grateful to all our teachers who have devotedly taught and helped us grow. We are thankful for our friends who have made these years enjoyable and memorable. Because of these influences, we have developed a sense of loyalty for our school which shall remain with us all through our lives.

As we leave Broadway High, we will take with us the memories of our past years. We shall leave a hope and a prayer for each student who remains: a hope that each person will take advantage of the opportunities which are available to him; and a prayer that each one will earnestly and constantly strive to reach the goal which we, as Seniors, have first attained.

Sincerely,

Phyllis Lantz, Pres. Sr. Class

Dear Members of the Student Body,

Serving as an officer of the Student Council has been an enlightening experience as well as much hard work. I should like to leave this thought to future students of Broadway High School: before you complain about a rule, think why it was made.

Best wishes for a successful Student Government,

Jimmie Mitchell, Pres. S.C.A.
